

Legal Redress for Victims of Corruption:
Enhancing the role of civil society in corruption related litigation

You are an anti-corruption activist ready to take legal action
This session is made for you!

You are a lawyer or an academic
Your legal expertise is more than welcome!

Join us at the session on Legal Redress for Victims of Corruption and learn more about the role of civil society in transnational grand corruption litigation.

The two-hour session will seek to empower civil society by mapping the current legal landscape and tools available to address trans-national corruption. It will follow a workshop organized on the 11th during which concrete corruption cases initiated by civil society will be presented.

The session will be broken into two substantive breakout sessions:

- Breakout n°1: Access to Criminal Justice: What role can civil society play to ensure that crime does not pay?
- Breakout n°2: Access to Civil Remedies: How can civil society play a role in ensuring redress for victims?

Date: 12th November / 15.00-17.00
